

NON AWARD FOR CAPE TOWN CRUISE TERMINAL

Written by Tracy
Friday, 10 October 2014 14:50

Following an extensive open and transparent procurement process, Transnet National Ports Authority (TNPA) this week announced that there were no successful bidders to operate a new cruise liner terminal in Cape Town.

TNPA will reissue a Request for Proposal (RFP) for the cruise terminal tender by way of Public Notice, to allow interested parties to participate in the process.